

Adolescent Brain Development and Addiction: The Teen Brain and Risk Taking by Dr. Ruth Potee

Dr. Ruth Potee, an expert in adolescent and adult addiction, shares the latest information on the developing teenage brain and its impact on risk taking, identifying the signs of drug use and addiction, treating addiction as a brain disease and treatment options available, and providing practical advice for how to use this information to safeguard our youth and community.

Click Here for Dr. Ruth Potee's Presentation